

CITY NEWS
Thurs 31 July 2008

NEWS

p. 14

BRIEFCASE

GREEN AWARD NOMINATIONS OPEN

NATIONAL news website, News.com.au, has launched the 2008 Green Awards. A nationwide search has begun for Australians tackling environmental challenges through clever innovation. Nominations in 10 categories close at 5pm on August 15, 2008. Entry forms are available from www.news.com.au.

DRUG ARM THANKS ARTISTS

DRUG Arm is congratulating Brisbane artists, including Councillor David Hinchliffe (Central), architect Paul Fairweather and Simon Degroot of Mambo, who decorated 10 Domino stools sold for charity. Funds raised went to Drug Arm's drug and alcohol education programs.

CITY HALL TRANSFORMS INTO CINEMA

CALLING all film buffs: City Hall will transform into a free film theatre over the next four months with a collection of five classic movies screening as part of Brisbane City Council's entertainment program. Josephine Baker's feature film debut Siren of the Tropics will air as part of the St George Brisbane International Film Festival alongside four silent movies that showcase the best of 20th century cinema. Visit www.brisbane.qld.gov.au or phone 3403 8888 for more information.